

THE '60S:

The Decade that Changed the World?

Third Age Learning at Lakehead (TALL) is pleased to present its five-part, fall speaker series, The '60s: The Decade that Changed the World?. The series will take place at St. Paul's Centre in Orillia.

OCTOBER 17, 9:30 A.M.

Taking the Stand for Justice: 'Witnessing' Atrocities and Reconciliation

Dr. Valerie Hébert, Associate Professor, Lakehead University Orillia

Can the truth in testimony can enable peace and reconciliation in the aftermath of mass atrocity today?

OCTOBER 24, 9:30 A.M.

Hippies in Canada: A Serious Security Threat?

Dr. Marcel Martel, Avie Bennett Historica Chair in Canadian History

Hippies were promoters of peace, love and sex, but the RCMP perceived them as a threat. Why did the RCMP collect information on hippies?

OCTOBER 31, 9:30 A.M.

There's Something Happening Here: Music's Contribution to Social Movements

Frank Horvat, award-winning composer, pianist, educator and activist

How can we explore the social changes of the 1960s through the eyes of iconic songs? Can music inspire today's activists in the same way?

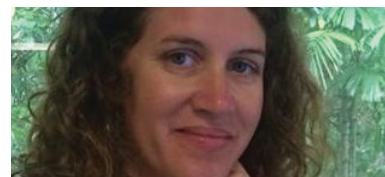

NOVEMBER 7, 9:30 A.M.

From Marching in the Streets to Surfing the Web: Activism or 'Slacktivism'?

Dr. Ellen Field, Lecturer, Lakehead University Orillia

How can today's activists learn from the organizing tactics of the '60s?

NOVEMBER 14, 9:30 A.M.

Who Won the 'Space Race': The Politics and Science of the 'Final Frontier'

Dr. Thomas Stiff, science educator and lecturer

Do the 'behind the scenes' technical and political battles that dominated the race to the moon still have an impact on modern society? Is the "space race" over?

